Newfield Fire Chief steps aside

By C.J. PIKE

Dick McGlincey has stepped aside as chief of the Newfield Rescue Squad after 40 years of volunteer service to the town.

Back in 1977, McGlincey helped to organize the local rescue squad and was elected president and chief, and has held on to the position since then. This year he decided to pass that title on to Nick Santangelo, who has 17 years with the town rescue squad. Now is the time to “let somebody else have all the fun” were his words, as he talked about his years as chief.

He is not retiring and will still be involved, responding to calls when needed. He is an Advanced Medical Technician, and there may be times when he would be needed.

Tournament named after local veteran

By CYNTHIA MATTHEWS

On May 26, the first Claude E. Webber Memorial Cup Chess Tournament was held at Bonny Eagle Middle School and the Bonny Eagle High School team took first place in their division.

American Legion Post 128 historian, Harold Ware, told participants about Claude E. Webber, for whom the tournament was named. Webber, a Standish resident, was a bomber pilot in World War II, and flew 35 missions. Ware explained that the average was four missions! He went overboard in his service to our country. “He was a special man,” Ware said that he knew Webber personally, as they coached and taught together. Webber was a Principal at George E. Jack Elementary School. “He was an excellent teacher, a fine man, with a great sense of humor,” reported Ware.

“Chess, to me, seems a bit like Military Operations,” said Ware. “It’s a little like war, with two sides, Generals with divisions, looking to make smart moves.” He continued, “It’s great to see so many young people here today,” but added, “I’d like to see more girls! This is not just a boy’s game, you know!” He finished by wishing all participants luck throughout the tournament.

“Ever since we started Chess Club here at Bonny Eagle, we’ve wanted to expose our students to tournament play,” Bonny Eagle Chess Team Coach, Oisín O’Searcoid explained. “Tournaments are so much fun for students and a real opportunity for them to play other kids that they might not

Siblings to hold art show at Kennebunk gallery

Peter Brown, designer and maker of artisan furniture and Wendy (Brown) Newcomb, a representational painter, are teaming up for their show “Siblings” at the Pop-Up Gallery, Maine Art’s newest gallery at Chase Hill in Kennebunk. The week-long show runs from Tuesday, June 19 through Monday, June 25 and is open 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. daily. An artist reception is planned for Saturday, June 23 from 5 to 7 p.m.

Wendy and Peter grew up in Kennebunk after moving from Scituate, Massachusetts in 1968. The first and second children of Ann and the late David Brown, Wendy and Peter always possessed creative expression, but never guessed as kids that they’d both be working artists who would one day have a show together.

When the opportunity presented itself to take a week at Maine Art’s Pop-Up Gallery, Peter and Wendy talked about doing a show together, and “Siblings” was born. The show promises to be a visual feast for visitors, featuring Wendy’s colorful paintings of Maine scenes paired with Peter’s distinctive hand crafted fine furniture.

As a child, Wendy drew caricatures and made cards before exploring her blossoming talent through the tutelage of high school art teacher and mentor Jan Merrow. Earning her BFA at UNH, Wendy embarked on a journey that took her from early pastel portraits,

FIRE CHIEF

He also still works full time for the Town of Limerick, and his wife Hazel will still hold the position as secretary for the rescue.

McGlincey said that it takes a lot to do the job, and you are not always there for your family. "Newfield Rescue is a team, and without the team, it doesn't work."

Santangelo presented a plaque to McGlincey for his 40 years of service and McGlincey turned his chief's badge over to Santangelo.

Members of the rescue team shared stories of the days when the squad first got started using second-hand trucks. McGlincey said that there have been a lot of trucks over the years, and "there were some good deals," which were bought cheap.

There have been a lot of changes over the years, and the all-volunteer squad has moved along with them into the future.

Shelly Gobielle of the town selectmen presented a bouquet of flowers to Hazel and thanked them both for their service to the town, stating that the squad members are professional and kind. "They are the lifesavers of the community."

New chief Santangelo says that the rescue squad has about 20 people on the roster right now, but they could use more volunteers. They receive about 20 or more calls per month.

McGlincey got a standing ovation from the crowd, and he and Hazel enjoyed cake, ice-cream and punch, along with the guests.

The event was held at the Public Safety Building at 85 Water Street, and there were about 40-50 people attending the event.

The longest war

When Robert Liberty spoke during the Memorial Day exercises this past Monday in front of Massabesic High School, he reminded his audience that the war with North Korea is our longest, because no peace treaty had been signed. He stated he had fought during that war, and since then his grandson has been in the service. Liberty was the one giving the prayer during the service.

Participants included Gery Brugten, a WW II veteran who had given a fine rendition of the National Anthem, Commander Donlon who introduced the guest speaker who was from the Naval Junior ROTC, Ivalani Callihan and there was the three gun salute followed by taps. The Massabesic High School Band provided the music. Dr. Tom Collins was master of ceremonies. It had been a small but impressive parade and memorial service.

Candidates night

There were three candidates present for Candidates Night last week with one, John Lord, (the road commissioner) having no competition. He explained he has been paving a lot more roads. When someone noted there are a lot of dead trees on the sides of the roads and asked if salt is harmful to trees, he replied both sand and salt can be harmful. "The more we do, the more we learn" he stated.

Tom Stonehouse introduced himself as a library director and candidate for selectman. His experience includes many years working in the Coast Guard. As to needs, he could see the fire department needs new vehicles. He said we have a good library which provides many services for the town. He spoke on many ways the town hall could be retrofitted, admitted that Alfred is highly taxed, and stated "My philosophy is don't waste money." He mentioned that an elevator could cost $80,000.

Tony Palminteri spoke on his extensive background in business, said budgets are easy to abuse, that they spent a lot of money to fix the dam (Littlefield dam) and that it is unfortunate so much bad information has been distributed about the jail. He would like to see the comprehensive plan fully implemented, said there were a number of items on the table. "We need to get the old jail tax viable, we need more fire trucks and firemen" he stated.

Those who were absent were David Galbraith, schoolboard member and Dominique Zuluetta, library director. Town Clerk Andy Bors acted as moderator, limiting the length of time members could speak. The meeting was well attended.

Elementary school

Parents, is your child missing a jacket, sweater or mittens? The pile of winter clothing grows each week on the steps opposite the school office. Better check it out for next year when we WILL have another winter.

Upcoming end of year activities include the sixth grade concert on Wednesday, June 6. On Thursday, June 7, there will be prekindergarten screening for Alfred and Lyman.

A special wildlife presentation will be held on Friday, June 8 and on Wednesday, June 20 there will be the fifth grade celebration.

The school-wide field day will be held Thursday, June 21. The last, much anticipated day of school will be Friday, June 22.

Village notes

Have you heard about the bird that kept Bob Liberty from going fishing? It built a nest on his fishing pole.

There will be a country jam Saturday, June 9 in the Legion Hall from 12 to 3:30 p.m. All are welcome. Donations are $1.

During a meeting this past week it was verified that the supper on Festival Day will have the same menu as last year – ham and beans, coleslaw, ice-cream and rolls. Emily Door is chairperson and the tickets will be available soon.

New additions to the Village Museum include a framed photo of Dr. Landers, a well-known Alfred doctor, with his granddaughter Eleanor, and a large sampler made by her.

On June 12, voting day, the women of the Parish Church will hold a food sale on the lawn. There will also be a plant sale that day.

While the name of the Cancer Care Center of York County has been changed to MaineHealth Cancer Care Center York County, the services, providers, staff and hours remain the same. COURTESY PHOTO

The Cancer Care Center of York County changes name

The Cancer Care Center of York County (CCCYC) is changing its name to the MaineHealth Cancer Care Center York County. The new name, effective June 1, reflects its partnership in the MaineHealth Cancer Care Network, a coordinated system of care that brings the best evidenced-based cancer treatments as close to home as possible to communities across Maine and the Mt. Washington Valley in New Hampshire.

"While the Cancer Care Center's name has changed, its commitment to delivering the best Cancer Care in York County has not," said Scot Remick, MD, FACP, chief of Oncology for the MaineHealth Cancer Care Network and Maine Medical Center Cancer Institute. "It's important for cancer patients to receive the right care, at the right time as close to home as possible. Maine Medical Center will continue to provide York County's only radiation oncology services at the Center as well as IV therapy. Southern Maine Health Care will also continue to provide medical oncology and hematology services in Sanford."

The Cancer Care Center of York County, which opened in 2006 at 27 Industrial Avenue in Sanford, was formed in collaboration with Maine Medical Center, Southern Maine Medical Center (SMMC) and Goodall Hospital with a mission to provide the best cancer treatment available in York County from one location. In 2014 SMMC and Goodall Hospital merged to become Southern Maine Health Care.

Dear Waterboro voters

The counter at Town Hall will be closed on Tues, June 12 but you can drop Absentee Ballots off at the Polls, at Massabesic East on Tuesday, from 7 a.m.-8 p.m. Even if you didn't pick one up you can still make your decisions from the mailers or from the information at the Town's website. You can take an answer sheet in with you and your time in the booth will be short.

Some final thoughts. Over the past several weeks I've touch on many issues and I'd like to address some additional info. This year's Budget has an increase of almost half a million dollars ($500,000). While the increase this year is mainly from two Capital Improvements (Old Alfred Road and Fire Station roof), from 2012 to 2017 the Budget has increased from 4.3 million to 6.4 million, a 50 percent increase! The Fire Department budget during that time has gone from half a million dollars to over $1,100,000, a 100 percent increase! In the last two years it added two Captains at a cost of $120,000 to the taxpayer. There are two large, town-owned SUVs for which we pay for the gasoline. Meanwhile, our firefighters and EMS personnel have to use a very inadequate decontamination shower!

During that same five years, the School Budget increased from $7 million to $8.5 million, an increase of 20 percent. There was a time when they would post a graphic of how your tax dollar was spent. Back in the 90's the School portion was about 85 percent. As the town budget increased this ratio has changed. In the pie chart in the Town's first mailer, the education portion represents 57 percent while the Town's portion is now at 43 percent.

Now, all of this happened right in front of us. We were busy with our jobs, our kids, our schedules. We really weren't watching; we weren't paying attention; myself included! No one wants to serve on committees anymore; and when we do and disagree with the Management we get shouted down and disrespected. This has to change too.

Remember, however you feel about this budget, the important thing is to vote!

CLIFF KROLICK needs your support.

Hello Neighbor's! In 1996 and again reinforced it 2015 Maine voters under citizens initiatives passed the Maine Clean Election Act. Maines'Commission on Governmental Ethics and Election Practices works diligently to stem the influence of private money corrupting state politics. The state by establishing a citizens supported fund under MCEA allows anyone wanting to run for office to have that opportunity even if they lack the money to do so. To a large degree MCEA was very successful until Mr LePage took over, and relabeled the program welfare for politicians. He began to withhold funds from MCE candidates that voters approved as well as other voter approved funds. As MCE candidate I'm now at risk of being denied MCE funds and all because a number of our legislators were bullied into submission by a philosophy that has no place in the heart of Maine.

- ✓ I want to see an equitable and fair long range plan to care for our aging and elderly population.
- ✓ Hunger and poverty go hand in hand. With all the farm land available in Maine, I'd like to see our state budget support the return of family farms, and CSA'S. These could provide locally grown, fresh, nutritious foods, at reasonable costs.
- ✓ Early childhood education needs a long-term boost from a family-friendly state budget.

Providing preschool, Head Start, and after-school programs with qualified mentors would reduce incidents of bullying and disrespect and encourage new families to move to Maine.

- ✓ I hope to work across the aisle to develop a contingency fund that can be used to help Mainers that are impacted by severe weather.
- ✓ Renewable energy and localized grids make sense. I will make a concerted effort to move our state to renewables and localized energy grids. Consolidating our energy locally will bring the cost of electricity down.
- ✓ People should come first. Far too many of our legislators follow the party line at the expense of working for the best interests of their constituents. If elected I will work for Maine people, not for the lobbyists or corporate interests. I'll support legislation to enhance the quality of life for our community. You can accomplish this by starting with restructuring the budget. We need more honesty, transparency, and integrity from our legislators. Here are some legislative issues that have been voted on recently in the Maine House and how the current representative in District 21 (Heidi Sampson) voted and how I would have voted. There's lots to be done! I'm just one person with big ideas but I'm ready to start to fight for my community and Maine people.

SOFTBALL

Mustangs top Rams 2-1

BY MICHAEL DEANGELIS
sports@waterbororeporter.com

Cayleigh Morris went seven innings for the win, and the Mustangs scratched out the only two runs they'd need in the bottom of the third, to help lift them to a clutch quarterfinal playoff win over visiting Gorham in varsity girls' softball on Thursday, June 7.

The game was a near carbon copy of the final regular season contest between the two squads, held on May 25, also won by Massabesic (13-4) by a 2-1 count. In the playoff game, like the regular season game, Gorham (13-5) jumped out to a 1-0 lead early. This time on a walk and run-scoring double from Kiana Tracy.

Following the first, Morris was in control, allowing just three hits the rest of the way while only allowing a single runner to make it to third.

"Cayleigh has been my Monday to Friday girl all season and she wanted the ball today," said head coach Kevin Tutt following the win. "She deserves it and she was great again."

Early on, things looked grim for Massabesic as Gorham's ace pitcher Grace McGoldrick (6IP, 0ER, 2H, 11K) was excellent, fanning seven of the first nine hitters she faced.

Grace Tutt broke things up with a two-out single in the top of the third, but the inning looked like it was over when the next hitter, Lacey Bean, smashed a one-hopper that McGoldrick snared in front of the mound. McGoldrick's throw to first was high and the ball bounded deep into foul ground.

Tutt raced all the way around to tie the score and Bean ended up on third. A pick-off attempt during Lauren Kiss' at-bat eluded third baseman Kiana Tracy and Massabesic had the 2-1 lead despite mustering just one-hit.

Kate Shubert added the only other Mustang hit in the next inning.

"Our defense was tremendous, it's been very good all year and today it really showed," said Tutt, who got a leaping catch and a nice scoop later at first base from Liv Cormier; a clutch scoop at first by Shubert covering the bag on sacrifice, a pair of nice defensive plays from Tutt at short and a back-against-the-fence catch from left fielder Zoey DeAngelis. "Any one of those plays goes against us and it's a different game, said Tutt.

Morris got stronger as the game wore on. She retired nine of the last 10 hitters she faced, three via strikeout, and the only ball that left the infield was the fly to DeAngelis in left with one out in the sixth.

The Rams stranded seven and managed just three base runners over the last four innings.

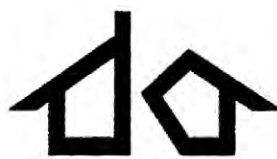

The Mustangs will play their next game on Saturday, June 9 in the regional semi-finals.

OBITUARIES

Barbara Clark Leach

Barbara C. Leach, 68, of Arundel, devoted wife, mother and grandmother, died peacefully on June 5, 2018, at the Gosnell Memorial Hospice House in Scarborough.

Barbara Clark Leach

Barbara was born on Jan. 27, 1950, the daughter of Robert A. and Charlotte M. (Libby) Clark.

She attended Mildred L. Day School in Arundel from kindergarten to eighth grade, followed by attending Kennebunk High School; and left a year later to marry her sweetheart and love of her life, Clifford E. Leach. They had met as kids, swimming at Kennebunk Pond, Barbara was 8 years old and Clifford was a teenager at 13 years old. And the skeptics said it would never last! Barbara and her husband, Clifford, were married over 51 years, and nurtured and loved their two children, Tammy and Troy. Barbara was very proud of her 30 years at Pratt & Whitney in North Berwick.

Barbara could be found in the stands every Saturday night at Beech Ridge Speedway. With her outgoing and spunky personality, she made friends easily; whether it was in the line at the grocery store or having friends over for dinner. She was often the 'life of the party' and could put everyone to shame when she played poker! Her love of animals came from childhood, where her father had a pair of draft horses and made the rounds with them at the local fairs.

Barbara's home was open to many of her children's friends; she became a second Mom to many. Of course they had their share of cats and dogs to make the household complete. She and Clifford loved to go out for breakfast. They were joined at the hip, and you never would see one without the other.

She was proud of her children and could not be happier when she became a grandmother. Her heart was full of love for her family and she will be dearly missed by her family and many friends.

She is lovingly survived by her husband, Clifford Leach of Arundel; her daughter Tammy J. (Leach) Gardiner Arundel and her two daughters, Emily K. Violette and Nichole M. Violette; her son, Troy R. Leach of Saco and daughter-in-law, Kellie Rae Tix and step grandchildren, Dylon J. Slick, Kaycee M. Slick and Spencer T. Tix; and was a proud great-grandmother to Finley R. Osterday, the daughter of Nichole. She is also survived by her two sisters, Nancy Leach and Helen Packard.

Please join her family on Friday, June 15, 2018 from 6 to 8 p.m. at the Autumn Green Funeral Home, 47 Oak St., in Alfred, to share memories, stories and enjoy light refreshments.

To leave a message of condolence for the family, visit www.autumngreenfuneralhome.com.

With Barbara's love of animals, in lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to the Animal Welfare Society, P.O. Box 43, West Kennebunk, ME 04094.

The Autumn Green Funeral Home is respectfully handling arrangements.

Juliette A. Cote

Juliette Annette Cote, 84, died peacefully at her home in Sanford the early morning hours of Mother's Day, May 13, 2018. She was born on July 24, 1933, the tenth child of Napoleon and Alice (Morneau) Alexandre in Sanford. She attended Lafayette and Emerson Schools through eighth grade then stayed home to assist her mother with the care of her younger siblings and other household responsibilities. As a young adult, she worked in the mills and on Sept. 4, 1954, at the age of 21, she married Andre C. Cote and together they raised ten children. Their marriage lasted 61 and a half years until his death on April 6, 2016.

Juliette A. Cote

Having learned to be a caregiver at a young age, Juliette continued to care for others throughout her lifetime. She was always willing to lend a helping hand, often driving elderly to appointments and sharing homemade meals and baked goods with family and neighbors. She learned to be a gardener, barber and nurse as she cared for the needs of her family. She especially knew the gift of hospitality and many, both young and old, loved coming to her home. She was a godly example for her children/grandchildren to follow. She was kind, compassionate, generous, and had a great sense of humor. She enjoyed Word Finds and playing games. To supplement Andre's income, she babysat other children and cleaned homes and doctors' offices. Her smile and genuine heart will be greatly missed by all who knew her.

Juliette, a member of St. Therese of Lisieux Parish, volunteered on many church committees. She was a member of the Ladies of St. Anne, Daughters of Isabella, Catholic Financial Life/St. Jean de Baptiste and The Living Rosary.

She was predeceased by her parents, her husband, and son-in-law, Edward Kenyon, Jr.; brothers Joseph (Pete), Raymond, George, Adrian, Edgar, Roland, Henri and Louie; and sisters, Adrienne Henry, Henriette Lamirande and baby Rolande. She is survived by her sons Paul of Sanford, Daniel and Muriel of SC, and Richard and Amelia of Springvale; daughters, Rita and Jim Bacon of Springvale, Irene and William Single of Lyman, Claire & Bruce Urquhart, Monique Kenyon, Marguerite and Tom Cannon all of Sanford, Cecile Bourgoin of VA, and Pauline & Kenneth Butler of Appleton; and by her brothers Ronald, Andre, Roger and Gerard Alexandre and sisters Anita Marie Marceau, Sister Shirley Alexandre, and Therese Klingensmith; numerous nieces, nephews and cousins. She is also survived by 19 grandchildren, 4 step grandchildren, 16 great grandchildren and 6 step great-grandchildren.

The family thanks the compassionate and loving caregivers of Compassus Hospice and Kindred at Home for their wonderful care of Juliette. A mass of Christian burial was held on May 29 at St. Therese of Lisieux Parish, Holy Family Church.

Beds available at community garden

By BRIGIT MCCALLUM

There are a couple of beds available for rent for the 2018 growing season at Waterboro Community Garden. WCG is overseen by a town-appointed committee and is located behind the parking lot at Waterboro Town Hall on Townhouse Road. There are twenty-eight individual rented beds in all and a section of the garden is designated as The Pantry Garden. That area is devoted to production for the Waterboro Community Pantry that is next door to the community Garden and is maintained by volunteers. A new renter receives planting rights to a full-sun exposure 4 by 24-foot bed, and water, soil and compost are available. The remaining beds are in the process of being planted by local gardeners, many of whom lack full-sun exposure where they live. All renters are expected to contribute a minimum of six volunteer hours to the overall upkeep of the garden each season.

Anyone interested in renting one of the beds can fill out an application, hard copies of which can be found at Town Hall or digital copies can be downloaded and printed out from the town's website. Only the last three pages, the waiver, the application and agreement to rules and policies must be submitted. Waterboro residents have first call on the beds, but other local gardeners may apply as well. A set of Rules and Policies govern participation in the gardens and a signed agreement to abide by these is a requirement for bed rental. There is a yearly rental fee of $25.00 for the planting year that runs from October to October. Applications can be submitted at any time, and new applicants pay an additional, one-time, $10 clean-up/deposit. Downloaded or scanned applications can be filled out and emailed back, but the signed waiver and agreement page must be returned to Town Hall along with a check or money order.

Questions can be emailed to garden@waterboro-me.gov and applications can be found at www.waterboro-me.net/docs/garden/garden_application_packet.pdf.

traits, graphic arts and illustration to painting Maine landscapes. She is inspired by examining the natural world and capturing its beauty in water color, gouache, acrylics and oil. From her home in Sebago and her seasonal home on Vinalhaven, Wendy recreates the splendor of her surroundings through her paintings.

Peter, always curious about how things were put together, built his share of forts and treehouses in childhood which led him to construction as a young adult. Over the years Peter learned about the properties of wood first-hand, taking on numerous woodworking projects including restoring a 1946 racing sloop. But a dream he had since his teens never left him—the desire to design and build fine furniture. Never one to shy away from a challenge, in 2014 he built a timber frame barn to house his woodworking shop and Meadowlark Designs materialized, nestled in a beautiful pasture along Carlisle Brook in Lyman, Maine. Peter now designs and hand crafts fine artisan furniture with traditional joinery, finishing each piece by hand using all natural plant-based finishes.

Wendy A. Newcomb says “My paintings represent a visual journal of my life in Maine, reflecting my love of Nature and my participation in it. The subjects I choose to paint are usually found in the inland and coastal landscapes near where I live, in both Sebago and my summer home on Vinalhaven. A recurring theme in my work is the way in which light falls upon objects and water, creating different patterns and reflections within the context of the composition. I prefer late afternoon light for its golden hues and long shadows or early morning as the sun just begins to reach the earth in its early ascent. My intent is to give the viewer a sense of “place”- of being there with me; participating in the experience of Nature.” For more information visit www.wendynewcomb.com

Peter Brown says “As I’m creating each design I give a lot of thought to what parts of the wood I’ll use, and where, based on grain characteristics and other unique features that naturally occur in the wood. These beautiful features are genuine and one of a kind; they give my work its warmth, charm and character.” For more information visit www.meadowlarkdesigns.net otherwise get to play, who are at the same playing level as themselves.” According to O’Searcoid, Southern Maine has struggled with providing scholastic chess opportunities, and the only major chess tournament is the Maine

State Scholastic Championship. “With our growing population of chess players, it made sense to use to make this move,” said O’Searcoid. “It also provided a good fundraising opportunity for us, hopefully over time, helping us realize our goal of covering all playing costs for our students.”

O’Searcoid said they settled on Memorial Day weekend for the tournament. “When the first trophy was being crafted, it became clear to us that its craftsmanship and our choice of date for the tournament should honor an appropriate community member.” While doing research, they came across a memorial notice for Claude Webber on the Kenison Hooper American Legion Post 128 (Standish) Facebook page. “The choice was made for us,” he said. “His service to our country was exceptional, not just among veterans of our community, but of veterans throughout the state,” he continued. “What made the decision even easier was his close ties to our school community,” O’Searcoid explained. “Mr. Webber was fondly remembered by many we spoke to for his 23 year principalship at George E Jack Elementary School.”

While only 30 players participated, the event was memorable, according to O’Searcoid. Bonny Eagle High School team placed first in the High School Division, and Thornton Academy was Runner up. Cape Elizabeth won the K-8 division, with Bonny Eagle Middle School placing second. “We really set the foundation for the future of the tournament,” he said.

“There is a lot of excitement among the chess community about having a second major chess tournament in Maine,” O’Searcoid. He explained that they are planning on moving the tournament into the regular chess season, between November and March, in order to facilitate more schools to take part, they also intend to add two sections, to accommodate High school reserves and K-8 novice players next year.

“Mr. Webber’s legacy is a constant reminder for us to always give our best in everything we do,” O’Searcoid added. “We hope that over the years this tournament in his honor will also serve to bring out the best in every player who competes.”

Coaches Oisín O’Searcoid offers special thanks to Angela Pierce Houghton, Melissa Farley, Tracy Kane, Lisa Brislin and Andrew DeMaris for all their hard work both on the day and in the months leading up to the tournament, and to Phillip Lowell for helping to direct the tournament.
